

8.15	Registration
8.45	Warming-up by Bert Groen and Pascale Franck, European Family Justice Center Alliance
9.00	Welcome by Alderman Judith Bokhove of the hosting City of Rotterdam, responsible for Mobility, Youth and Language
9.15	Voices: the stories of survivors of intimate terror: this message is our key!
9.30	The importance of recognition and acknowledgement of intimate terror by Anne Groenen, Head of the Center of Expertise Resilient People at University Colleges Leuven Limburg, researcher and lecturer at KU Leuven
9.50	Pilot project 'Intimate terror' in the Netherlands by Pascale Franck EFJCA & Gerda de Groot, psychotherapist Fier Leeuwarden/Capelle a/d IJssel & Serife Cetin, trainer at the 'Steeds Sterker Academie'
10.05	Filomena, a new one-stop shop approach to combat domestic and sexual violence in both children and adults by Christine Clement, coordinator of Filomena Center Domestic Violence and Child Abuse
10.20	Coffee and possibility to talk to each other
10.45	Word from The European Commission by Katalin Szilas, Seconded national expert at European Commission, DG Justice and Consumers, Gender Equality
10.55	Message from the OECD by Dorothy Adams, Seconded at OECD (Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development)
11.05	Coercive control and dangerous relationships by Jane Monckton-Smith, professor of public protection at the University of Gloucestershire and author of the book 'In Control. Dangerous relationships and how they end in murder'
11.50	Intimate terror and coercive control, international experience from the Family Justice Centers by Casey Gwinn, President of U.S. Alliance for Hope International
12.10	Non-Fatal Strangulation and intimate terror by Gael Strack, Chief Executive Officer of the Alliance for Hope International and U.S. national expert on domestic violence and strangulation
12.30	Lunch and opportunity to network
13.30	Testimonials from survivors, an impressive contribution from the Belgian documentary on partner violence 'Als je eens wist ... partnergeweld' by Hilde van Mieghem, documentary producer and film director
14.00	The Power of Hope and Empowerment: the core of trauma-informed care that makes the difference by Casey Gwinn & Gael Strack, U.S. Alliance for Hope International and founders FJC model
14.30	Parallel Break-out sessions, choice can be made between: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A In control. Dangerous relationships and how they end in murder by Jane Monckton-Smith (expert coercive control in relationships) and Susan Haile (expert in intimate homicide) • LANGUAGE: ENGLISH B Intieme terreur: werken met slachtoffers by Ilona Brekelmans en Saskia de Veld (beiden GGZ-psycholoog) • LANGUAGE: DUTCH C Intimate terror: working with perpetrators by Arno van Dam (professor antisocial behaviour, psychiatry and society at Tilburg university) and Madeleine Rijckmans (psychotherapist and mental-healthcare psychologist at the forensic clinic Fivoor) • LANGUAGE: ENGLISH D Trauma informed care for children affected by domestic violence and child abuse by Casey Gwinn (President of the Alliance for Hope International) • LANGUAGE: ENGLISH E Psychopathology and intimate terror by Trees Kelder (mental-healthcare psychologist at Fier) • LANGUAGE: DUTCH
16.45	Closing session
17.00	Time for sharing with friends and colleagues enjoying a drink and a treat (TILL 18.00)